

SEEKING INFORMATION

Albuquerque, New Mexico

HATE CRIME INVESTIGATION

Remarks: The suspect is described as being approximately 5'9" to 5'10" with a pale complexion, blue eyes, and large muscles. He wore a black ski mask that covered his whole head (except for his eyes), blue winter gloves, a baggy, yellow short-sleeved polo shirt with no markings, and blue jeans.

CAUTION

The FBI is investigating, as a hate crime, the attack of a woman in her home by an unknown assailant.

On June 5, 2014, an unknown masked man forced his way into the victim's home in Albuquerque, New Mexico, while she was alone. The suspect punched the victim in the head and stomach while yelling obscenities about Muslims. (The victim and her family are not Muslim, and immigrated to the United States in 2008.) He then ordered the victim to show him where her gold and money were located. A substantial amount of gold and cash was then reportedly stolen. The suspect also tore up citizenship papers belonging to the victim and her family.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $2,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the unknown subject.
